Sign Language Course: Come for the Ephphatha Experience

Ephphatha is Aramaic for "Be Opened"; a word used by Jesus when he healed a man who could neither hear nor talk. Our Sign Language programme is designed to open full and inclusive communication. It will also connect persons with different abilities to live, learn and work together to create a just and loving world which recognises and celebrates our diversity.

Dates: 5 – 8 September 2010.

Venue: Kuruman Moffat Mission.

Facilitator: Ms Victoria Ramaribana, is an experienced Sign Language teacher.

Minister's retreat: For the re-charge of your mind, souls and bodies

Ministry is one of the major stress-prone occupations. The good news is that ministers will now have access, through this programme, to one of the most creative ways of dealing with stress. Local churches are specially invited to give their minister a "treat".

Dates: 5 - 8 October 2010.

Venue: Kuruman Moffat Mission.

Facilitator: Rev Roxanne Jordaan, is an experienced retreat planner and guide.

Singing the Lord's Song: Music Workshop

The question of the Psalmist "How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land", remains unanswered for many today. The course, "Singing the Lord's Song", will help one to read, create music and sing with understanding. It is designed for all types of music and to show music creativity. This is an excellent course for Choirs, Directors and all who people who love music. Music is an instrument for the creation of a justice culture.

Dates: 6 – 9 October 2010.

Venue: Gaborone Botswana.

Facilitator: Mr Henry Merkel is an accomplished music teacher

Called to Serve: An essential training course for all deacons.

Service is one of the distinctive elements of our faith and our humanness, (Ubuntu/Botho). Jesus describes himself as one who came not to be served but to serve. This course is designed for deacons and all who want to understand service as we are all called to a variety of ways to serve.

Dates: 22 – 23 October 2010;

Venue: Windhoek, Namibia.

Facilitator: Rev Majaha Nhliziyo is UCCSA Director for Leadership Development.
